

SPOT THE SIGNS OF MODERN SLAVERY HUMAN TRAFFICKING & FORCED LABOUR

Physical marks

They have marks on their body (burns, bruises, cuts) that show they might be physically abused.

Someone always nearby

There is always someone near them and they seem afraid of that person. This could be their trafficker.

Fearful, timid or submissive

They're afraid of speaking to anyone, especially authority figures.

Unsure of surroundings

They're afraid to talk about where they live or don't seem to know their surroundings very well

Lack of formal ID

They don't have any form of identification (ID or passport) or they say someone else has their ID/passport.

Substance abuse

They abuse some form of substance such as drugs or alcohol.

Lack of freedom

They have a limited freedom of movement.

Different transportation

You often see them getting in and out of different vehicles.
